

There will be a 259th Place P-T-A board meeting on Friday, December 11, at 7:30 p.m., at the home of Miss Frances Dastarc. In carrying out the holiday theme there will be a white elephant exchange.

Jaycettes will have a general meeting Tuesday, December 15, at 8 p.m., at the Chamber of Commerce building to vote in a new president. Everyone is asked to be there for the election.

"Of the many child guidance magazines printed, one of the finest is the California Parent-Teacher magazine," according to Mrs. C. E. Aspttle, magazine chairman of the 259th Place P-T-A. "The publication is of interest to all those interested in the welfare of children." Anyone interested in subscribing or in information may call Mrs. Aspttle at DA 6-6075.

'Y' PLANS FESTIVAL FRIDAY

An all-nations family Christmas festival will be held Friday night, December 11, at 7:30 p.m. at the Torrance YWCA, Carson near Del Amo.

This year the YWCA expects even a larger turn-out than the unprecedented turn-out it had last year.

There will be caroling by the Y-teens, foreign exhibits, a "Pinata" for youngsters, foreign pastries, a barbershop quartet, and a report on a recent visit to the near-east to be given by Mrs. Gilbert Myers.

Mrs. L. Ladra, world fellowship chairman of the Harbor district, will tell about world fellowship and will accept the Y-teen contribution.

Swedish songs will be sung by Mrs. Lois Gettman who will appear in costume. She will be accompanied by Wilbur Johnson on the accordion, according to Mrs. Francis Foley.

Others who have been active on various committees are: Mrs. Carl L. Mohler, foods; Mrs. Floyd Miller, president of the Y-Wives, membership and telephone; Mrs. Tom Klinden-beard, International Women's club; Mrs. Warren Hamilton, table decorations, Mrs. Victor Benstead, floral arrangements; Mrs. Samuel Rauss, Senior Woman's club; Mrs. Lee Stamps, guest book; Mrs. Kenneth Clutter, world fellowship

OPAL HOY ELECTED ORACLE

The last regular meeting of Torrance Camp Royal Neighbors of America saw the election of officers who are: Opal Hoy, oracle; Sophia Duncan, vice oracle; Rosy Shepherd, past oracle; Vertie Grimm, recorder; Belva Brase, receiver; Betty McNeil, chancellor; Della Echorn, marshal; Ethel Liske, assistant marshal; Cordie McDermott; inner sentinel; Ava Lynn, outer sentinel; Ruth Garland and Juanita McNew, managers; Lucille Meyer, musician; Dr. John W. Tippin, physician; Mary E. Baker, delegate to State Convention; Vertie Grimm, alternate.

Oracle Rosy Shepherd conducted the election of officers. District Deputy Mamie Kirchner of Culver City was an honored guest.

On the agenda were final plans for the camp's annual Christmas party scheduled for Tuesday evening, December 15 at 6:30 p.m. This dinner party will be held in the Women's Club House with reservation to be made with Camp Recorder Vertie Grimm.

Oracle-elect Hoy will report the names of the appointive officers at the next meeting, January 5.

MAKING DOUBLY SURE that the date of Friday, December 11 will ring a bell in Mrs. Thomas Klinkenbeard's mind are (seated, l-r) Mrs. Victor Benstead and Mrs. Carl Mohler. Mrs. Klinkenbeard (seated, center) doesn't have to be reminded that this is the International Festival sponsored by the YWCA since she is quite interested in the event, being the president of the International Women's Club. Mrs. Francis Foley (back, left), general chairman, and Joan Lasteris, wearing the scarf to be sent to Brazil by the Y-Teens, stand by in back.

Mrs. B. Rosin Speaks To P-TA On 'Finances'

The final Parent Teacher Information Study Groups meeting was held Monday, November 30, in Channel Heights School. This project of the Lomita, San Pedro Council of P-TA has been well attended during the study classes and has given a wealth of information to all those attending. Mrs. Bessie Rosin, auditor of the 10th District was the speaker, using "Finances" as her topic. She gave the suggested budget for the year as: 30 per cent for organizational expenses; 30 per cent child welfare; 20 per cent general account; 10 per cent convention and conference expenses; 10 per cent for the 10th District Health Center, this amount is the net of the profits. Mrs. Rosin said for all money raising events to be held on school grounds, authorization must be received prior to the scheduled date from the Board of Education.
